History & Philosophy of Community Action (Aug. 24-25)

By David Bradley, Executive Director of National Community Action Foundation (NCAF)

This special event will begin at Madden's Conference Center at 9:00a.m. on Tuesday, August 24th and end at noon on Wednesday, August 25th. "The History and Philosophy of Community Action" is a training session developed to inform participants about the background and history of community action. This in-depth seminar explores the roots and changing nature of poverty since 1960, considers the political forces against which community action agencies have always struggled to survive, and examines the critical turning points in the history of community action.

2010 MinnCAP Conference (Aug 25-27)

Appreciating Diversity: Eliminating Poverty

The 2010 conference activities will begin at Madden's Conference Center at 1:00p.m. on Wednesday, August 25th and end at noon on Friday, August 27th. The theme this year is "Appreciating Diversity: Eliminating Poverty". Our Kick-off Keynote will be David Bradley, Executive Director of the National Community Action Foundation (NCAF). We have numerous workshops for you to receive high level training. You can find the conference schedule and a tentative schedule of workshops on the MinnCAP Web site: <http://www.minncap.org/events.html>. We look forward to seeing you in August!

Hope to see you there!

Racial Justice and The Constitutional Issues in Northern Minnesota

Guest Speaker: Audrey Thayer

Audrey Thayer is Anishinabe enrolled with the White Earth Nation located in Minnesota. She was born to a first generation full-blooded German father and a full-blooded Ojibwe from White Earth who provided her with the gifts of caring for people. Audrey has approximately 30 years in organizing behind her with a Masters Degree in Education Counseling/Psychology from Cambridge College, Mass. She is a mother of six children (five living) and ten grandchildren.

The last five years, Audrey Thayer has worked as a community organizer in Bemidji in racial, social and peace issues in Northern Minnesota which includes the Red Lake, White Earth and Leech Lake reservations. She teaches part time as an adjunct professor at Bemidji State University. Thayer has served on many non-profit boards and committees locally, tribally, state and federally which brings to the table a wealth of knowledge.

Ms. Thayer was hired to develop and implement the Greater MN Racial Justice Program (ACLU-MN), The ACLU is the nation's leading advocate of constitutional and civil rights. The project focuses on racial justice in Northern Minnesota, plus education in constitutional law and civil rights, specializing in education, health care, racial profiling, criminal justice, indigent advocacy, and other racial justice issues. Audrey Thayer provides education in policy, advocacy, and community organizing.
